Youth Meat Goat Show Rules

The State Fair General Rules, the Livestock Rules and the Show Ring Code of Ethics apply to this department. By submitting an entry you agree to read and abide by these rules.

1. All rules, policies, and procedures found in the General Rules and Information and Livestock Rules for the State Fair of Virginia will apply to Youth Market Goat. See General Rules and Information pertaining to health regulations (including Scrapie Identification requirements and issues pertaining to contagious and infectious diseases). The National Show Ring Code of Ethics shall govern the Youth Meat Goat Show as found in the Livestock Rules. The State Fair of Virginia reserves the right to test any entry for violative drug residues as described in the National Show Ring Code of Ethics.
2. Enter on-line at www.statefairva.org, under 'State Fair' and then 'Competitions' or contact Kaci Daniel in the Orange County Extension Office for assistance. 540-672-1361 or the State Fair of Virginia office
3. Only 4-H and FFA members who are currently enrolled in Virginia are eligible to compete. Exhibitors must be at least 9 years of age by September 30 of the current year and must not have had their 19th birthday before January 1 of current year.
4. Meat Goats which have participated in any sale or premium auction associated with another fair or livestock show after the State Fair ownership deadline are ineligible for exhibition at the State Fair of Virginia. This rule applies even if there was not a change in ownership (i.e. market goats are ineligible even if they are "bought back" or "no-saled").
5. Exhibitors must show their own entries unless the exhibitor has more than one animal in the same class (or in group classes), or permission is given by the show superintendent. Substitute show persons must be eligible 4-H or FFA member with youth Market Goat entries.
6. All youth Meat Goat entries are subject to on-farm inspections to verify entry information. All exhibitors agree to accommodate such inspections.

7. All goats must remain in the designated penning area and immediate area upon arrival until released from the fair. Market Goats are not allowed to be taken to trailers, cattle barns, cattle tie-out area, or other areas away from the market goat barn at any time.
8. Exhibitors are expected to care for their animals in an acceptable manner and adhere to quality assurance guidelines. Application of ice or iced water in any form is prohibited (sprays, packs, blankets, or towels).
9. Goats should be shown with collar (short lead is okay) or halter. The use of muzzles or pinch collars are prohibited.
10. Drenching and deworming of goats is prohibited while on the fairgrounds, along with the use of coloring agents.
11. Horns must be tipped or blunted, prior to arrival.
12. Meat Goats shall be penned on natural bedding (i.e. wood shavings, wood chips, or bark - no carpet). Initial bedding will be provided by the Fair. One bale of shavings per pen. Additional bedding may be purchased.
13. Pen assignments will be by county.
14. Health or other issues that arise with Market Goat which require treatment while at the State Fair shall be done with the knowledge and supervision of the show superintendent. The State Fair reserves the right to remove entries from the fairgrounds for this purpose.
15. Showmanship is mandatory! Participation in showmanship is required to be eligible to show in the Market Goat or Breeding Doe Shows.
16. This is not a terminal show. Meat goats will not be sold through the State Fair.
17. New for 2010, No Bracing will be allowed.

SPECIAL RULES - MARKET GOATS

1. Market goats must be born on or after January 1 and must have their milk teeth and no permanent eruption of teeth.
2. Market goats must be owned, separated, and cared for by the exhibitor on or before the last nomination date and continuously afterward. (See nomination schedule and forms)
3. All first and second place class winners must be shown to compete for their respective Grand Champion and Reserve Division Champion honors. Failure to do so will be considered a violation of the National Show Ring Code of Ethics and appropriate action taken.
4. Market Goats may be wethers or does. Wethers must show no evidence of testicular tissue and be completely healed from castration.
5. Goats exhibited in the market goat division may not be shown in the breeding doe division.
6. Final designation of market entries will be made at official weighing.
